

The Walk on Water Pledge

(Note: You need to say this with positive focused emotions combined with motion (while walking intentionally and deliberately) and confidence/faith that your words are creating your desired outcome. Remembers WORDS are Spirit and Life. This is not magical. You have to follow through.)

I _____, choose to walk on water
I define broadly my possibilities.
I defy boldly all impossibilities.
I am afraid, but I move with gusto and fierce focus.
I have learnt to dance daily, with my fears.
I embrace them, knowing they lead me to new horizons.
Uncharted Territories await me because I dare to move.
I stumble, but I stand- tall in the face of setback.
I translate my missteps into lessons. Failings into feedback.
I choose to win, against and in spite of all the odds.
IWalk on Water!

I am an original. I walk on water.
I am unlike any one you will ever encounter.
I am unique and carry uniquely crafted solutions.
I am an answer to a pressing and uncommon question.
I offer unprecedented value.
I seek only the highest and the best in all things. I do not settle.
I walk where others fear to tread.
I believe impossible is nothing. Impossible is a dare.
I.....Walk on Water!

I am a Water Walker in all aspects of my life, work or business.
I test the boundaries with my ideas.
I am loaded. I am strategic.
I never tire of reinventing myself.
Not for me the tried and tested.
Not for me the victim game.
I walk where others fear to tread.
I believe impossible is nothing.
I am inspired, and connected to other powerhouses.
I am empowered and completely unstoppable.
I.....Walk on Water.
